COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY
WASHINGTON, DC 20510-6275

May 28, 1993

Mr. Charles E. Collins
2642 Augusta Drive North
Clearwater, Florida 34621

Dear Mr. Collins:

Thank you for your follow-up letter regarding the details of your case.

It is a general policy of the Judiciary Committee not to intervene in or investigate individual matters. Congressional intervention in a pending case risks violating the constitutional separation between the legislative and judicial branches of government.

As it seems that you went to some expense to provide the committee with this information, I am returning it to you.

Thank you again for your letter. I wish you a swift and satisfactory conclusion to this matter.

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Biden, Jr.
Chairman
