

THE COMMISSION MEMBERS

There are 11 members of the Commission, each serving a four-year term. The Governor appoints four members, including one judge, one lawyer and two people who are neither judges nor lawyers. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals appoints three judges as members. Each of the four leaders of the Legislature appoints one person, who may not be a judge. The Commission elects one of its members as chairperson and appoints an administrator and a clerk. The administrator hires and supervises a staff in three offices, located in New York City, Albany and Rochester.

COMMISSION OFFICES

801 Second Avenue
New York, New York 10017
(Principal Office)

Agency Building No. 1
Empire State Plaza
Albany, New York 12223

109 South Union Street
Rochester, New York 14607

STATE OF NEW YORK

COMMISSION

ON

JUDICIAL CONDUCT