Dear Mr. Collins:

The papers which you delivered to my office on August 31, 1987 are returned herewith. No action is being taken in connection with your request.

This office has no Appellate jurisdiction. If you are dissatisfied with the determinations made by the court and if you wish to seek review of those determinations, you must proceed through the authorized Appellate channels.

With regard to your request that the case be referred to some other judge, you or your attorney may make application for disqualification to the judge to whom your matters are assigned.

Very truly yours,

J. Raymond Amyot
