CONFIDENTIAL

Mr. Charles E. Collins, III
45-5 Woodlake Road
Albany, New York 12203

Dear Mr. Collins:

The State Commission on Judicial Conduct has reviewed your complaint dated August 17, 1987. The Commission has asked me to advise you that it has dismissed the complaint.

Upon careful consideration, the Commission concluded that there was no indication of judicial misconduct upon which to base an investigation of the judge. The Commission is not a court of law and does not have appellate authority to review the merits of matters within a judge's discretion, such as the rulings and decision in a particular case.

As to the hearing examiner, the Commission has no jurisdiction.

Very truly yours,

Albert B. Lawrence
Clerk of the Commission

Dear Mr. Downs

Here is a copy of my documentation on the judicial corruption in Saratoga County. The first section is an introduction to the main participants in this case. The second section, Support Proceedings, is detailed as to what page everything comes from on the original transcript.

Since there are others involved who you do not have jurisdiction over. I would appreciate it if you would turn this over to the State's Attorney General's office.

Thank you
